Countries to Pray For:

Kyrgyzstan (ASIA)

Population: 7,343,064

Languages: Krygyz, Russian, Uzbek

Religions: Islam, Russian Orthodox, Ukrainian Orthodox, JW

People: Mostly semi-nomadic herders, living in yurts and tending livestock. Soviet Communism controlled the country 1936-1991; currently one of the most corrupt countries in the world. Major ethnic clashes between the Uzbeks and Kyrgyz (2010). Since the prices of imported agrichemicals and petroleum are so high, farming is done by hand and horse.

What to Pray About: Illegal bride kidnapping is still practiced. For centuries, foreigners have ruled and imposed their religions; Christianity is associated with those who killed many ancestors and relatives. Shamanism, ancestor worship, and demonization are significant forces beneath the façade of Islam. Harsh religion laws; the government heavily restricts missionary activity and the distribution of Christian literature. Great need for Gospel witness.

Laos (ASIA)

Population: 7,974,017

Languages: Lao, Hmong, Khmu

Religions: Theravada Buddhism

People: One of the most corrupt countries in the world, a socialist Communistic state; lacks adequate infrastructure. Government controls all media channels to prevent critique of its actions; citizen criticism subject to enforced disappearances, arbitrary arrests and torture.

What to Pray About: Government persecution against the Hmong ethnic minority a serious problem. Civil society advocates, human rights defenders, political and religious dissidents, and Hmong refugees have disappeared at the hands of government. Pray for increased openness to the Gospel which is still obstructed by the government; underground Christian churches.
