Countries to Pray For:

United Arab Emirates (MIDDLE EAST)

Population: 11,425,031

Languages: Arabic, English, Hindi, Persian, Urdu

Religions: Islam

People: Online criticism of its government outlawed. It spends more than any other country to influence U.S. policy and shape domestic debate; pays former government officials to carry out its agenda within U.S. Judicial system derived from civil and Sharia law; citizens banned from converting, but foreigners are free to choose their own religion.

What to Pray About: Flogging, stoning, amputation, crucifixion, torture, and deportation are legal punishments; apostasy is punishable by death. Since 2011, the government has increased forced disappearances. The treatment of migrant workers is comparable to modern-day slavery. Gospel witness – Grace RBC (Dubai); Pastor John Folmar of United Christian Church (Dubai); Josh Manley of Rak Evangelical Church (Ras Al Khaimah).

United Kingdom (EUROPE)

Population: 69,657,316

Languages: English, Polish, South Asian languages, 4 Celtic languages, Scots, Welsh

Religions: Church of England, Anglican, Roman Catholic, atheist, Muslim, Hindu

People: A highly educated yet secularized nation. The UK includes Great Britain, Northern Ireland, Scotland, and Wales; each country has its own arrangements.

What to Pray About: Lax regulations and London's financial institutions provide sophisticated methods to launder proceeds from criminal activity around the world. Violent crime, prostitution, and gambling are high; major consumer of heroin and cocaine. Islam is the fastest-growing religion. An extensive list of solid gospel-centered churches listed at <http://www.grace.org.uk/churches/chdir.php>.
