Coordinator Mark Chanski May Itinerary

Having ministered out of town all four April Sundays, the Coordinator will be home all four May Sundays.

It is the praying Christian alone that employs the riches of the promises which we usually let lie by, like dead stock, unimproved. While he, like a wise and diligent merchant, looks abroad upon all the affairs of Jesus Christ that are afloat here in this world and ventures in them all. He is watchful to spy out all advantages and involves himself with a holy intermeddling in everything that glorifies God, does good to the church, and comforts his own soul. How infinitely rich must that man be that puts God's riches out to use with the increase of ten talents for one, yea, a hundred-fold, through prayer!

MISSIONARY PRAYER GUIDE

"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea"

HABAKKUK 2:14

- 1 The Secrests ask continued prayer for Iglesia Bíblica Gracia y Verdad in Miraflores, the district of Lima with the least number of evangelical churches. They have a strong leadership team but need to be in a new location by the end of the month.
- 2 Pray for the 3rd session of the “Discovering Christianity” evangelistic Bible study that David and Nicky Vaughn are holding tomorrow with several non-Christians.
- 3 The Favres (France) ask prayer for the Lausanne Bible College committee as they evaluate student applications for the next session and decide if there are enough students to begin the four-year program in the fall.
- 4 Please pray for the Selph’s Gospel work in Atlanta, especially tomorrow, as they hold their first monthly worship service in the area they have been working for several years. This is not a church-plant effort, per se, but a next level of a preaching-point. It will be held at 4:00 p.m., followed by a dinner prepared by the people who live there.
- 5 The Masters report that there is a severe outbreak of Dengue in Argentina. Several families in the churches have been infected. Sam is about halfway through the expected recovery time. Please pray for his health and others affected.
- 6 Please pray for the John Kortie family (Native Amer., AZ). At the time of this writing, Bethanna has shared that, “Doctors told us today that John’s journey in this life is almost over.” Please pray for God’s peace, comfort, and grace to be upon the Kortie family and that our gracious heavenly Father will continue to use John’s legacy for his glory.
- 7 USAF Chaplain S. ask that we pray for Zayden, one of their homeschool teens who is battling leukemia. Pray that the chemo accomplishes its designed goals and he can receive a marrow transplant.
- 8 JMW asks prayer for the workload she deals with each day, for discernment in decisions, and for grace with people issues.
- 9 The RBCs of the French-speaking part of Switzerland and neighboring France will meet today to discuss the topic of “The Conscience, God’s Precious Gift”. Pray with the Wengers and the Favres that this day will continue to forge strong relationships between the churches.
- 10 Please continue to pray for the Emadis (Rep. of Ireland) as they try to find a home.
- 11 Please give thanks with the Ryttersgaards and CRBC Barbados for several prospective new members presently going through the membership application process.
- 12 Baruch Maoz reports that My God in His Beautiful Greatness (in Hebrew) is with the printer. Pray God will use this book to glorify himself.
- 13 Please pray for USAF Chaplain G. as he takes on the majority of the Chapel’s Protestant service preaching responsibilities for the next year.
- 14 Pr. Marcelo Brondo (Carlos Paz, ARG) requests our continued prayers for jobs for several families in the church who have lost their source of income due to the dire economic situation in their country. Please pray that God will overcome the obstacles so that they can find work, as Argentina experiences between 30–200% inflation.
- 15 Please pray for Pastor S. B. (India) that God would grant him wisdom, understanding, and safety as he shares the Gospel from village to village.
- 16 The Secrests ask prayer for VASE (Volunteers in Social Help and Evangelism), a Peruvian NGO that exists to provide Peruvian Medical professionals and others the opportunity to display the love of Christ to the poorest of the poor. Pray for the medical campaigns they will host in July and September in Chiclayo and that the Lord will provide for their financial needs.
- 17 Pray for the Selph’s gospel outreach in Atlanta which includes ministry at the City of Refuge on Friday evenings and every-other Saturday morning for Bible study. There is a continual turnover of ladies who stay on the premises for 6–12 months, until they can live on their own. Much good has been done over the years in this Gospel effort.
- 18 Pr. Obed Rupertus (Ref. Bapt. Church of Santiago, Chile) requests that we ask the Lord to give him wisdom and patience in guiding the Lord’s sheep under his care while the country grows in unrest and uncertainties.
- 19 Pray with USAF Chaplain S. for Sarah and Elli, a dear sister in the Lord and her young daughter. They are going through an exceedingly difficult time and need the Lord’s grace and mercy.
- 20 Pray for David Vaughn’s work with Gypsies coming to the Reformed Faith in France. He is currently training 4 key gypsy men in three different cities. Pray that the work of conversion and Reformation among this community will grow, extend, and deepen.
- 21 Tim Wenger (Switzerland) gives thanks for the birth of Joana and Liora Rollock. He asks prayer for all the children of their church, that they will be led in faith in Jesus Christ. Tim also praises God for the April courses, where 14 new counselors, 4 camp leaders, and 4 expert trainers were trained. Pray that they will be a blessing to Christian camps.
- 22 Pray with the Kilians that God would raise up and bring to ACU faculty and staff who live out the Christian worldview in their teaching, mentoring, and interactions with students, modelling Christ-like character and wisdom.
- 23 Praise the Lord with the Masters that Sam’s cancer was removed and he needs no further treatment.
- 24 Please pray for the young adults that Ashley Emadi (Rep. of Ireland) has been meeting with. Many are young girls who want to be married, and there are so few Christians to meet.
- 25 Pray for Pastor S. B. (India) to have fruitfulness and strong respectful relationships within the communities to help effectively communicate the love of Christ.
- 26 JMW praises God for the 97 people in one No. African city who recently heard the gospel of Jesus Christ. Please pray for lasting fruit.
